

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 1

SECTION ONE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT:
THE POSITIVE SIDE

CHAPTER ONE: PRINCIPLES OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 5

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT IS MORE THAN JUST PERFORMANCE
 APPRAISAL 6
PERFORMANCE IS DIFFERENT FROM CONDUCT 7
MANAGE PERFORMANCE, NOT PEOPLE 7
PERFORMANCE DOES NOT AUTOMATICALLY FIND ITS OWN LEVEL 8
PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT IS A MANAGEMENT FUNCTION 8
BUILD ON STRENGTH 8

CHAPTER TWO: SETTING PERFORMANCE STANDARDS 11

PRINCIPLES OF PERFORMANCE STANDARDS 11
 Emphasis 12
 Conduct 12
 Compliance With Regulations 13
 Routine Activities 13
 Traits, Knowledges and Abilities 13
 Life or Death Matters 14
 Certifications, Licenses, and Other Tickets 14
 Specificity 14
 Mission-Supporting 16
 Measure Extended Performance 16
WRITING THE ELEMENTS 17
 Identify the Outputs 18
 Identify Customer Expectations 18
 Add Any Required Expectations 19
CHOOSING CRITICAL ELEMENTS 19
 Pitfalls in Writing Elements 19
 Examples of Job Elements 20
WRITING THE PERFORMANCE STANDARDS 21
 Making Standards Specific 22

Using Existing Numbers.....	24
Using Descriptive Words.....	25
One-Time Objectives.....	26
Different Types of Standards	27
One-Time Projects.....	27
Recurring Processing Expectations.....	28
Response Criteria.....	28
Improvement Objectives.....	29
Developmental Objectives	29
Project Milestones.....	30
Negative Standards (Counting Mistakes)	30
RATING LEVELS	30
WRITING STANDARDS AT THE HIGHER RATING LEVELS.....	31
THE SEQUENCE OF WRITING THE LEVELS.....	36
WRITING BONUS ELEMENTS.....	39
CHAPTER THREE: MONITORING PERFORMANCE.....	41
PRINCIPLES OF MONITORING	41
Economy.....	41
Timeliness.....	42
Objectivity.....	42
SIDE-EFFECTS OF CONTROLS	42
What You Count Is What Counts	42
The Quality Control Paradox	43
Goals in Disagreement	43
TYPES OF MONITORING SYSTEMS	44
Time Accounting	44
Inspections	45
Production Records	45
Suspense Files.....	46
Supervisory or Higher-Level Review	46
Work Samplings.....	47
Event, Incident, or Problem Reports.....	48
User or Client Feedback	48
Financial/Budget Reports.....	49
Progress/Milestone Reviews.....	49
Activity Reports.....	50
WHEN TO CREATE A MONITORING SYSTEM.....	50
CHAPTER FOUR: FEEDBACK AND APPRAISAL.....	53
PRINCIPLES OF FEEDBACK.....	53
The More Frequent, the Better	53
Try to Stay Positive, and Build on Strength	53
Forward-Looking	54

FEEDBACK SESSIONS.....	54
Informal Feedback	54
FORMAL FEEDBACK.....	55
What You Can Do.....	55
Raw Information About Performance.....	55
Evaluation Against Standards.....	55
Higher Rating Levels	56
THE FINAL APPRAISAL.....	56
Supervisory and Employee Preparation	56
CHAPTER FIVE: REWARDING PERFORMANCE	59
AWARDS PRINCIPLES.....	59
MONETARY AWARDS.....	61
Performance Award.....	61
Superior Accomplishment Award	62
Improvement Awards.....	62
Quality Step Increase	63
AWARDS AMOUNTS.....	63
NON-MONETARY RECOGNITION	64
Honorary Designations	64
Certificates, Letters	64
Objects	64
Activities	65
Time Off	65

SECTION TWO

HANDLING PERFORMANCE PROBLEMS: THE NEGATIVE SIDE

CHAPTER SIX: STEP ONE—SEPARATE PERFORMANCE FROM CONDUCT	69
PERFORMANCE OR CONDUCT?	70
The Theory	71
Different Causes and Different Solutions	71
Differences in Degrees.....	73
THE PRACTICE	74
Send the Right Messages	74
Removing People for Misconduct Is Always Easier	75
The Disciplinary Process.....	76
Performance-Based Actions	77

CHAPTER SEVEN: STEP TWO—ISOLATING THE PROBLEM 79

IS IT A PROBLEM? 79

CAUSES OF POOR PERFORMANCE 82

- Bad Instruction 82
- Bad Feedback..... 83
- Organizational Barrier..... 83
- Punishing Work 84
- No Meaningful Consequence 84
- Wrong Consequences 85
- Inability 86

CHECKLIST OF POSSIBILITIES..... 86

SOLUTIONS TO THE PERFORMANCE PROBLEMS 87

- Bad Instruction 87
- Bad Feedback..... 88
- Organizational Barrier..... 88
- Punishing Work 89
- No Meaningful Consequence 89
- Wrong Consequences..... 90
- Inability 90

CHAPTER EIGHT: STEP THREE—PRESSURE 93

CASUAL STEPS BEFORE SERIOUS NEGATIVE FEEDBACK..... 94

PRINCIPLES OF COUNSELING 95

- Act Like a Supervisor 95
- Be Serious 96

FORMAT FOR COUNSELING 97

- Explain the Purpose Directly 97
- Give Facts About the Performance 98
- Put the Performance Into Context 99
- Describe the Consequences 100
- Tell Exactly What Improvement You Expect..... 101
- “Fleshing Out” and Clarifying Performance Standards 101
- Set Time Limits 102
- Put it in Writing..... 103

WHAT COMES NEXT 103

CHAPTER NINE: STEP FOUR—DEALING WITH EMPLOYEE DEFENSES 105

TOO MUCH WORK..... 105

- Prove It 106
- Use Your Eyes 107

LACK OF TRAINING..... 108

CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND THE EMPLOYEE’S CONTROL 109

PERSONAL PROBLEMS.....	111
MEDICAL PROBLEMS.....	112
The Supervisor’s Approach to Medical Issues.....	112
Dealing With Performance Problems Caused by Medical Problems....	113
Employee Burden.....	113
Management’s Response.....	114
Duration of Disability.....	115
Affect a “Major Life Function”.....	115
Serious.....	115
Continuous Not Situational.....	115
TREATING THE EMPLOYEE AS NOT DISABLED.....	116
TREATING THE EMPLOYEE AS DISABLED.....	116
Accommodate If Reasonable.....	117
Negotiate.....	118
Show That Accommodation Is Not Feasible.....	118
Performance and Requirements of the Position.....	119
Administrative Disruption.....	119
Program Modification.....	120
Physical Danger.....	120
Cost.....	120
DENIAL.....	120
THE GAMES PEOPLE PLAY.....	122
“I Want That in Writing!”.....	122
“I Want a Witness”.....	123
“What About So-and-So’s Performance?”.....	123
“Nobody Ever Said This Before”.....	124
“I’ll File a Grievance”.....	124
CHAPTER TEN: THE SEPARATION.....	127
OPTION A: USING PERFORMANCE STANDARDS.....	128
Performance-Based Actions: An Overview.....	128
Definition of Unacceptable Performance.....	128
Opportunity to Demonstrate Acceptable Performance.....	129
The Performance Improvement Plan.....	129
When to Issue a PIP.....	130
Components of a PIP.....	130
A Brief Statement of Exactly What Critical Elements or
Important Responsibilities the Employee Is Failing In.....	131
Examples of How the Employee Failed.....	131
What the Employee Must do to Bring Performance
to the Satisfactory Level.....	133
The Length of Time for the Improvement Period.....	134
How You Will Monitor and Evaluate the Employee.....	135
What You Will do to Help.....	135

The Consequence.....	137
Question About Medical Problems.....	137
Referral to Rehabilitation [Optional].....	137
Fleshing Out Performance Standards.....	137
For Timeliness or Volume of Work	139
To Describe Quality.....	141
Monitoring Work During the Improvement Period	141
Treating the Employee Fairly	142
The Performance-Based Action.....	143
Procedural Steps in a Performance-Based Action Using
Performance Standards.....	143
A Notice of Proposed Action	143
Reply to the Deciding Official	144
Final Agency Decision.....	144
Why Agencies Lose Cases.....	144
Failure to Give an Opportunity to Improve.....	144
Poor Performance Standards	145
Absolute or Unreasonable Standards	145
OPTION B: USING DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS	146
Elements of a Disciplinary Action.....	147
Cause of Action	147
Formal Action Appropriate	147
Penalty Justified.....	148
Proof of Facts.....	148
When to Use Disciplinary Actions	149
Clear Conduct Matters	149
Safety and Security Violations.....	149
Single Serious Acts of Incompetence.....	149
Deliberate Acts or Refusals to Follow Instructions or Policies.....	150
Acts Caused by Carelessness, Inattention, or Laziness	150
Performance Matters Not Addressed in Performance Standards...	151
Examples of Charges.....	152