

POSITION CLASSIFICATION AND JOB GRADING IN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT A GUIDE FOR PRACTITIONERS

By D. C. Knudsen

TABLE OF CONTENTS

---

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER II: BACKGROUND OF POSITION CLASSIFICATION IN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

CHAPTER III: THE GENERAL SCHEDULE

- The Pay System
- Components of General Schedule Classification
  - Occupational Group
  - Occupational Series
  - Title
  - Grade Level
  - Classes of Positions

CHAPTER IV: GENERAL SCHEDULE CLASSIFICATION STANDARDS AND GUIDES

- Standards
  - Form and Content of Standards
  - Narrative Standards
  - FES Standards
- Guides

CHAPTER V: THE POSITION WITHIN THE ORGANIZATION

- The Position Description
  - Preparing a Position Description in FES Format
- Performance Standards

CHAPTER VI: RESPONSIBILITY FOR CLASSIFICATION

- The Incumbent
- The Supervisor
- The Classifier
  - Responsibilities of the Classifier

Understanding the Work of the Position
Determining the Appropriate Standards to Measure the Position
Applying the Standards to the Position

The Agency
The US Office of Personnel Management (OPM)

CHAPTER VII: JOB GRADING UNDER THE FEDERAL WAGE SYSTEM (FWS)

Background of the FWS
Coverage of the FWS
Difference from Grading Under the General Schedule
Job Grading Standards

CHAPTER VIII: REVIEWING AUTHORITIES

Direct Review
Indirect Review of Position Classification
    Appeals to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB)
    Appeals Based on Allegations of Illegal Discrimination
    Grievances
    Congressional Oversight

CHAPTER IX: APPEALS

Filing a Classification Appeal
Issues Which Cannot be Appealed
Where to Submit Appeals

CHAPTER X: FUTURE CHANGES

Automation of Position Classification
Broad-Banding

CHAPTER XI: SUMMARY

APPENDICES

Appendix A: Excerpts from Chap. 51 of Title 5, US Code
Appendix B: General Categories of General Schedule Work
Appendix C: General Schedule Occupations
Appendix D: General Schedule Supervisory Guide
Appendix E: The Primary Standard of the Factor Evaluation System
Appendix F: The Federal Wage System (FWS)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

ABOUT THE AUTHOR